

Camrose Street Performers Festival Media Release

Camrose Street Performers Festival Our Line-up is Ready - See You Saturday!

Camrose, AB (For Immediate Release) The Camrose Street Performers Festival is pleased to announce the performers, who will be performing on Historic main street (50 St.) in downtown Camrose September 26, 2015:

- Carrie Day: is a Singer/Songwriter from Edmonton. ...speaks just as she sings: calmly with an ever-present sense of tranquility and poise." Vue Weekly. November 28, 2012
- Charly Doll: Charly is a nine year old girl, from New Norway who plays guitar and sings. No stranger to Camrose, she regularly performs at Songbook Sunday, CFCW Bailey Buckaroos and performed on the stage of the 2015 Big Valley Jamboree
- Mackenzie Fisher-Bach Is an aspiring musician, from Wetaskiwin, with an immense love for music and everything it does for the world
- LisaB: Has been entertaining Edmonton roots music fans, for quite some time now. She either performs as a solo act or part of the reggae inspired group One Fever. In addition to being a great acoustic guitar player, she also plays bass and is a great drummer.
- Dennis P. Gerik: "Saxophones and other stuff" from Vermillion, AB
- Joanne Hay: Plays guitar and sings country music
- The Camrose Spirals: The Camrose Spirals are a Precision Rope Skipping Team from Camrose. The club has been competitive for 15 years and do demonstrations, attend rope skipping camps, and compete.
- Sam Lundell: Sam is excited for 2015 as he continues to work on completing original tunes for recording and finalizing set lists for a number of summer music festivals.

(cont.)

- Vicki Myers: Will be doing face painting, along with local face painter Jacque Munro.
- Lothar The Wizard of Magic: performs his fun-filled shows of good, clean comedy magic, music and audience participation, everywhere people gather and is rated as one of Alberta's best.
- Jon Simpson: Will be entertaining with old time fiddling.
- No F Chords: Are a group of musicians from a Camrose rock band; playing acoustic guitars on the street, like they do around the campfire.
- Leslie Lindballe: Ukulele player and a singer, is also the host of the Bailey Theatre's Songbook Sunday and plays with the CFCW Bailey Buckaroos.
- SaskaTUNE Jam: A bluegrass, country variety group of ladies, from Viking, AB
- Andrew Rufiange: Local magician, from Camrose will be entertaining all!
- Amy Wright: Ukulele, guitar player and singer
- Jon Rodgers: Flutes, whistles and traditional folk music
- Netti Spaghetti: Will be coming, from Edmonton. She'll be roving around the site teaching hooping
- Lindsay Aicken: and her friends will be our clowns
- Jonathan Aat-Mesah: Is an African drummer, from Camrose
- Kelly Vince: Is a young girl, from Camrose, who plays violin

Special Guest: John Welsh who'll be performing for Rose City Roots, at the Bailey Theatre, on the night of September 26, will be appearing on the street to perform some tunes. (Time: TBD)

More info about the Camrose Street Performers Festival:

- Like our Facebook page and join our Facebook event
- Join our Google+ event
- Check out our Yelp event
- Follow the Camrose Street Performers Festival on Twitter @Camrorespf
#CamroseSPFestival

You can also view all the events being planned for Camrose Alberta Culture Days 2015

For more information about the Camrose Street Performers Festival, contact:

Bob Kenyon
camrorestreetfest@gmail.com

<http://camrorestreetperformersfestival.blogspot.ca/>

